Artist Bio

Eva Gjaltema is a visual artist who grew up in the Netherlands and moved to Berlin in 2012 where she currently still lives with her family.

Eva holds a Degree in Cultural Studies at the University of Amsterdam (2004) and a Bachelor of Photographic Design at the Royal Academy for the Visual Arts in The Hague (2008).

In 2010 Evas work was nominated for the Dutch Doc Award for her exhibition 'Famylje' which was shown at the Noorderlicht Photofestival in 2010 and in the Fotomuseum Den Haag in 2015, and was also acquired by the Fries Museum. She held a Stipendium (Post Middendorp Assignment) to create the work 'Knoalster' in 2011, which was exhibited at the Kunsthal Rotterdam and as a Solo at Noorderlicht Gallery Groningen. She also exhibited amongst others at Gemeentemuseum Den Haag, Rencontres d'Arles, Jarvis Dooney Gallery, Wiesbadener Fototage, Hellerau Photography Awards, Getxophotofestival. In 2022 her series 'Hiding/Hidden' was one of the winners of the Hariban Award 2022.
